Guest Lecture by Prof. Dr. Dietrich Jung

“The Arctic Muslim”. Taking Middle East and Islamic Studies to the Far North

This lecture presents new directions for the study of Islam in the West. It goes beyond the current focus on pietistic and Salafi identities in metropolitan areas. The Arctic provides a novel prism in analyzing modern interpretations of religious traditions. How do Muslims in Arctic Norway and Canada practice Islam in everyday life?

Dietrich Jung is a Professor and Head of the Center for Modern Middle East and Muslim Studies at the University of Southern Denmark.
